AUGUST IS MEMBERSHIP AND EXTENSION MONTH

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Amantium irae amoris integration est.

Pres. Raffy Chan

A number of Rotarians, including your president, have to be away today to attend the Membership Development Seminar at Caba, La Union. If plans do not miscarry, VP Ben Ladilad—whom I have previously requested, will preside the meeting today in my stead. Thanks, Ben.

RCB and RCLT jointly hosted the First Cluster 1C Meeting held last Saturday evening at Ivy's Grill, Hotel Supreme. Many thanks to our RCB program participants: PP Diony Claridad- for doing an excellent job as emcee, IPP Gerard Audineau- for a masterful French touch on the entertainment, and IPAG Linda for a gracious GHS Introduction. Likewise, we thank all RCB members who made it that night.

On the said outing, we actually almost got burned on the venue option. I only have myself to blame that I personally looked at the venue late, as it was moved from Jacks Restaurant to Inglay's. Your President is thankful for Divine guidance in making the transfer to the Hotel Supreme venue almost without any problem. Allow me to also thank my personal friends Peter and Ivy Ng (Hotel Supreme owners) for giving us preferential treatment and an architect's discount on the food.

All is well that ends well. We have learned the lesson to be more discerning with everything that comes into play with respect to venue. Nuff said.

Thankfully, your president is now slowly beginning to get the real feel of being the RCB President. Why? It is now slowly dawning on me that I now devote most of my time for Rotary works. Each day goes so fast and there is so much that needs to be attended to. I have actually been looking forward to giving my time during this presidency; so do not be too concerned about me and my practice as an architect.

With this thought in mind, I surmise that it would have been the same for all our past presidents who came before me, particularly the more recent presidents who had their hands full. This is the reason why we enjoin our members to reciprocate in like manner, give some of their precious time to Rotary.

We express our thanks to those who continually work for the RCB: our members, directors, advisers, guides and consultants, and past presidents who remain "in the thick of it." Let us all work together to make our club better and BIGGER.

My Ann Josie and I visited the practice session of our Chorale last Tuesday, 07 August 07. Despite the stormy weather that evening, seven members of the chorale were on hand for their regular weekly practice and fellowship at the top floor of the AMDC. Unfortunately for us, more than half of members were absent during the practice session we attended. Thank you for having us.

Mr. Sabater, the returning chorale maestro is doing his best to make them sing better.

Our Latin quotation for this week is from poet Terence—Amantium irae amoris integration est. Literally means: the quarrels of lovers are the renewal of love. This is an indirect way of saying that everything between people in love—even quarrels, actually bring them closer together. These small vexations can be considered as tests, which after being successfully hurdled, will actually enrich a couple's relationship.

IN RETROSPECT

The Meeting That Was 04 August 07

PP Veeh Balajo

How do we bring back the charm and magnetism of our Saturday meetings, as in the years gone by – the Casa Vallejo years, when everyone (well, almost all) was excited to come early to enjoy each other’s fellowship 30 min. to one hour before the meeting was called to order? How do we entice our members to aim for a 100% attendance to our home club? Well, “those were the days, my friend...” as the song goes. Now, one can make up for his / her absence from home club meetings in so many ways, and many of us feel that this is sacrificing the fellowship that we’re supposed to enjoy with our attendance to our own meetings.

I arrived at the Wolfson room at 12:20 PM, and there were just 4 individuals in the room, including our GHS. Of course we, and most of all, Pres. Raffy, were worried. But when PP Helmut, the Program Coordinator, arrived, we all settled down, and Pres. Raffy called the meeting to order at exactly 12:30 PM. We were shown a PowerPoint presentation of “I Believe”(by the Lettermen) for our Invocation. This was followed by singing of “Lupang Hinirang” with our right hand over our left chest, and the “Rotary Hymn”, as we form a circle, holding hands. Such body language can be very meaningful, and these things keep us bound together in RCB.

Rtn. Ging was absent (somebody should re-rotarize her, please!), but the Entertainment portion was aptly taken over by PC PP Helmut. He called on our ever-ready “boy scouts”, IPP Gerard & Rtn. Angie, who graciously rendered “She’ll be Coming ‘Round the Mountain” & “Cossack Song” with their harmonicas.

At 12:50 PM, PP Benny introduced the personalities at the head table (in Pilipino, would you believe?), and since there were no visitors, he spent the allotted time introducing to our GHS all the RCB members present. By this time we’re already 15.

12:55 PM sharp, and we saw EIC Dhory confidently showing her prowess in convincing members to shell out cash voluntarily during the Finest Moment by way of enumeration type-questions on “Sports”, per table – 1)Name at least five sports events that the Philippines would participate in during the 2008 Olympics; 2) Name 5 PBA teams; 3) Demonstrate 5 hand signals during a basketball game. And everyone fared well to the amusement of our GHS, and to the satisfaction of everyone.

1:05 PM was Raffle time – we had soooooo many raffle prizes, and for the first time in history, I won thrice!!! (Thanks, Treas. Marilyn!) Member’s Time immediately followed – announcement of induction of officers of our RCC in Luding (Aug.5), reminder for members’ payment of semi-annual dues. PP Helmut invited everyone to the “German sausage” blow-out of his Rotakid Margot (who passed the Pharmacy Board Exams), Sunday, Aug. 5, 4:00 PM onwards(Congratulations, Margot!).

Pres. Raffy took advantage of “His” time (1:17 PM) with announcement of the ff. : Cluster IC meeting, Aug. 4, 6:00 PM, Ivy’s Grill, Hotel Supreme; RCC of Luding Induction, Aug. 5, carpool at Petron-BGH, 8:30 AM; Membership Development Seminar, Aug. 11. Caba, La Union; this year’s RCB Barong uniform cloth & sewing c/o Giovanni’s; new RCB membership directory sent via email.

At 1:25 PM, IPP Gerard introduced our GHS, “Birthday Boy,” Jogin Tamayo. After singing “Happy Birthday to You” for him, ice cream was served, courtesy of Pres. Raffy, to the delight of the members. Jogin then elaborated on the importance of sports to our society. He posed this challenge to us – other Rotary clubs give awards for the “Most Outstanding Cop/ Barangay Chair/ Teacher”. Why not “The Most Outstanding Athlete” by RCB?

Open Forum followed at 1:45 PM, followed by the Response delivered for the club by VP/Dir. Ben Ladilad. Everyone was insinuating that we invite / nominate/ recruit Jogin to become our member, and there were even suggestions to fast-track his “entry”, to the chagrin of PP Benny, as Chair of Membership Committee. (No need to worry, PP Benny, the rules of procedure/ SOP’s/ proper steps will be followed, as always, the RCB way.)

For the first time this Rotary year, the meeting was adjourned, after the chanting of “Pilipinas Kong Mahal”, at 1:58 PM. Another fruitful meeting has ended, which was missed by the absent members, as much as we missed them!

Treas. Marilyn, congrats for doing a great job in raffle prizes shopping...PP Chris loved it!...I did too!

Our distinguished "Latin President" gave us the President's message..good thing ...in English!

Our French IPP did the introduction of GHS in English but with French accent!

Our VP Ben was deputized to render the Response...or was it another speech? Whatever... he was terrific!

EVENT SYNOPSIS

August 05, 2007 was marked on RCB calendar as this is a significant day for our RCC in Luding. The Officers of our RCC in Luding was inducted by our very own President Raffy Chan. Another highlight of the event was a brief meeting with the residents of Luding to foster their appreciation for RCB. It was very evident in their expressive eyes that this objective was achieved. Another item on the agenda is the endorsement of payment for labor for the water system project. This was dutifully accomplished by our Treas. Marilyn. It was another meaningful day for RCB likewise for our RCC.

Look at those faces! Our hearts melt upon seeing their faces lightening up with our presence.

Our sporty President inducted the new officers of Luding RCC with RCB members by his side.

Right hands raised... Officers do solemnly swear to perform their duties.

Our dear Marilyn...still handling cash? Yes, of course..she is a Treasurer in heart and in deed.

Everybody say...chiz! Enjoy the click of the camera...thank you for coming!

Guess who joined us? Yes, Mr. Jogin Tamayo had a wonderful time with us.

Thanks Friend

One day, when I was a freshman in high school, I saw a kid from my class walking home from school. His name was Kyle. It looked like he was carrying all of his books. I thought to myself, "Why would anyone bring home all his books on a Friday? He must really be a nerd." I had quite a weekend planned (parties and a football game with my friends tomorrow afternoon), so I shrugged my shoulders and went on. As I was walking, I saw a bunch of kids running toward him. They ran at him, knocking all his books out of his arms and tripping him so he landed in the dirt. His glasses went flying, and I saw them land in the grass about ten feet from him. He looked up and I saw this terrible sadness in his eyes. My heart went out to him. So, I jogged over to him and as he crawled around looking for his glasses, and I saw a tear in his eye. As I handed him his glasses, I said, "Those guys are jerks." They really should get lives. "He looked at me and said, "Hey thanks!" There was a big smile on his face. It was one of those smiles that showed real gratitude. I helped him pick up his books, and asked him where he lived. As it turned out, he lived near me, so I asked him why I had never seen him before. He said he had gone to private school before now. I would have never hung out with a private school kid before. We talked all the way home, and I carried some of his books. He turned out to be a pretty cool kid. I asked him if he wanted to play a little football with my friends. He said yes. We hung out all weekend and the more I got to know Kyle, the more I liked him, and my friends thought the same of him. Monday morning came! , and there was Kyle with the huge stack of books again.

I stopped him and said, "Boy, you are gonna really build some serious muscles with this pile of books everyday!" "He just laughed and handed me half the books. Over the next four years, Kyle and I became best friends. When we were seniors, we began to think about college. Kyle decided on Georgetown , and I was going to Duke. I knew that we would always be friends, that the miles would never be a problem. He was going to be a doctor, and I was going for business on a football scholarship. Kyle was valedictorian of our class. I teased him all the time about being a nerd. He had to prepare a speech for graduation. I was so glad it wasn't me having to get up there and speak. Graduation day, I saw Kyle. He looked great. He was one of those guys that really found himself during high school. He filled out and actually looked good in glasses. He had more dates than I had and all the girls loved him. Boy, sometimes I was jealous! Today was one of those days. I could see that he was nervous about his speech. So, I smacked him on the back and said, "Hey, big guy, you'll be great!" He looked at me with one of those looks (the really grateful one) and smiled. " Thanks," he said. As he started his speech, he cleared his throat, and began "Graduation is a time to thank those who helped you make it through those tough years. Your parents, your teachers, your siblings, maybe a coach...but mostly your friends... I am here to tell all of you that being a friend to someone is the best gift you can give them. I am going to tell you a story." I just looked at my friend with disbelief as he told the story of the first day we met. He had planned to kill himself over the weekend. He talked of how he had cleaned out his locker so his Mom wouldn't have to do it later and was carrying his stuff home. He looked hard at me and gave me a little smile. "Thankfully, I was saved. My friend saved me from doing the unspeakable." I heard the gasp go through the crowd as this handsome, popular boy told us all about his weakest moment. I saw his Mom and dad looking at me and smiling that same grateful smile. Not until that moment did I realize it's depth. Never underestimate the power of your actions. With one small gesture you can change a person's life. For better or for worse. God puts us all in each other's lives to impact one another in some way.
