SEPTEMBER IS NEW GENERATIONS MONTH

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

A posse ad esse.

Pres. Raffy Chan

In behalf of the members joining me, we apologize that again we have to be away today. We trust that Dir. Ike—your presiding officer for today, will take care of you with as much care as we would if we were personally present. We have to attend the District Leadership Training which will be concurrent held with the Rotary Community Corps (RCC) Seminar at the City of Dagupan on this fateful day.

Your president is “in demand” today because he also needs to be back in Baguio this afternoon for the 3 PM Induction of the Rotaract Clubs of SLU Medicine and UB Dentistry. Said induction has been set without my prior confirmation and “stumbled” into a schedule conflict with the Dagupan Seminar. It has been suggested for re-schedule at a later date. But your president believes that time is of critical importance; thence, confirmed that we can proceed with the induction as scheduled. I will thus have to leave for Baguio promptly at noon to be back on time for the induction program. I am happy to oblige with my presidential duties; having the honor of inducting our youthful partners in service.

Two weeks after the release of our Membership Recruitment tools, our Rotary Education paraphernalia will likewise be out shortly. Together with Chairman Mike Pearson, we have prepared two bindings: Membership Development (916-04EN) a binding of 16 pages and New Member Orientation (414-EN) of 20 pages. These will be used by our Rotary Education Subcommittee to keep our members better informed; with the end in view of enhancing member participation and retention.

To cap these tools, we are now beta-testing an E-Learning CD which will be given to all of our RCB members within the next two weeks. This is an auto-play disk which contains important Rotary Information (downloaded from the RI E-Learning website). Our work on the CD was essentially the provision of the “launcher” which displays a special RCB Menu of all of the items available on the CD plus a PowerPoint Viewer installer—for those who do not have a PPS player on their laptop or computer. We have also “localized” the various presentations through the insertion of our own club images which (it is hoped) will make the packet “very RCB.”

In connection with the latter, we again respectfully encourage our non-computer users in the club to (very soon) join us in the use of these wonderful Information Technology (IT) machines. When you get your RCB E-Learning CD, you will have an excellent reason to try it out and learn from the said CD. If you don't have a computer, do ask someone to help you out. Consider buying one. We trust that you will discover that the computer is really so easy to use and you will probably ask yourself—how you have been able to live without it for so long....

Just so we keep ourselves on track, may we respectfully remind our Directors to constantly keep with them a copy of our Cañao Volume LX Number 09, dated 01 September 07. This is the Special Club Leadership Plan Edition which contains all of the matrices for our five club committees. Why? So that you will constantly have a reminder of our various concerns and activities for the year—given in a month-by-month tabulation. A constant source of inspiration to do good in behalf of the club.

It is hoped that our directors will constantly refer to the matrices—as each activity is ticked on the list. Our club members should also find time to work with our club Directors.

Our Latin axiom for this week—A posse ad esse. Literally means: From possibility to actuality. This is a parallel to the adages: think and be; what you can imagine—you can attain; and similar others.

IN RETROSPECT

The Meeting That Was 08 September 07

Rtn. Herb Meadows

Our Program Coordinator for the day was Treasurer Marilyn Barredo. She has replaced PP Chris Peralta as my favorite Familial Rotarian. President Raffy promptly called the day's meeting to order. The Invocation-Reflection was a narration of the Desiderata by Ed Ames. This being the first time I had experienced it, I found it to be spiritually moving. This was followed by the singing of the Pambansang Awit and the Rotary Hymn.

Rtn. Angie Visperas handled the Entertainment. He readily distributed lyrics of four songs. Rotarians Herb Hayes, Doming Valencia, Linda Winter, Veeh Balajo, Helmut Schlaaff, and yours truly, joined Angie center stage to sing the songs. Treasurer Marilyn Barredo, not to be outdone, performed an impromptu dance number. Thereafter, Our French IPP Gerard introduced our guests. Finest Moment brought PN Bert Talco to the podium. PN Bert flat-rated the members with a fine of Php100.00 and acknowledged various members for their accomplishments. Our new Raffle Queen, Treasurer Marilyn, featured raffle items I had never before seen including an electric fly swatter, capiz frame, a hammock and six portions of kimchee. To say it was an interesting collection, is an understatement. Worth noting are our European winners: PP Gerard took home three prizes, Secretary Uwe took the fly swatter, and PP Helmut won the hammock. Members' Time featured PP Doming Valencia speaking of the importance to recruit new members. PP Doming unveiled a "Four-for-Two Plan" of attack.

President's Time included four items: recognition of active Past Presidents Veeh Balajo, Gerard Audineau and Doming Valencia; the importance of checking email boxes for club information; attendance to the District Conference which will be held here in Baguio; greetings to birthday celebrant PP Lito Pangilinan and wedding anniversaries of Rotarians Cecille Apostol, Gerard Audineau, and Bert Talco.

PP Diony Claridad was called upon to introduce our Club Speaker, none other than Vice President Ben Ladilad. VP Ben spoke about the international problem of Global Warming outlining the many causes and their effects. The Open Forum diversified from questions to comments that were more on the presentation aesthetics than on the content of the topic. The club's Response was delivered by PP Helmut Schlaaff.

As is our tradition, the meeting closed with the singing of Pilipinas Kong Mahal and the striking of the bell by President Raffy Chan.

Our cool Treasurer showed her versatility... this time as vivacious Program Coordinator.

Our Past Presidents were joined by other singer Rotarians ...great talents I must say!

Rtn. Herb Meadows gladly helped out his ate in Raffle draws...interesting raffle prizes!

PP Helmut demonstrated his appreciation for this unique raffle prize...hey! that's a hammock, right?

PP Diony Claridad flattered our Club Speaker with his gracious introduction...smoothly done, PP Diony!

Our very own Vice President, Ben Ladilad as a Club Speaker...very impressive!

Pres. Raffy Chan handed the Plaque of Appreciation to his next in line...thank you VP Ben!

Youth programs are a springboard to Rotary for former RYLArrians

Lawrence Chew leads the crowd in a rousing cheer at the 2006 International RYLA in Helsingborg, Sweden.

Lawrence Chew and Bern Igoche are so passionate about the Rotary Youth Leadership Awards (RYLA) program that after participating in the 2006 International RYLA in Helsingborg, Sweden, they decided to return to the event this year — as Rotarians.

“Last year’s program had 124 participants from 25 countries,” says Chew, 27, a member of the Rotary Club of Richmond Sunrise, British Columbia, Canada. “That blew my mind.”

Each year, Rotary clubs and districts nominate local RYLA alumni to attend the International RYLA. Chew and Igoche served as counselors at the 2007 event, which was held in June in Salt Lake City, Utah, USA, before the RI Convention. Longtime members of the family of Rotary, the two Rotarians have been Interactors and Rotaractors, as well as district-level RYLA participants and counselors.

“I am proud of my involvement with Rotary and the chance to continue contributing as a RYLA counselor,” says Igoche, 30, who believes the RYLA experience benefits not only participants but also the people they encounter throughout their lives.

“They return to their countries intent on cooperating with their district Rotary clubs to carry out service projects for their communities, country, and even the world,” says Igoche, of the Rotary Club of Makurdi, Benue State, Nigeria.

Both men agree that RYLA also helps build awareness of Rotary. By inviting young people to RYLA events, especially those without a connection to the organization, Rotarians are promoting Rotary’s good works to the next generation.

“The next time they see the Rotary logo or hear Rotary mentioned, they’re likely to think, ‘Hey, I went to a program run by that organization.’ So, even if they don’t join Rotary, they have a good opinion of Rotary and what it does,” Chew says.

Meet Wilf Wilkinson : “Learn More, Do More, Dream More – Become a Leader”

By Past District Governor Tom Wilkinson

This issue, we get up close and personal with new RI President Wilfrid J. Wilkinson, a shining example of what it takes to be a great leader. Wilkinson, who became a Rotarian in his early 30s, shows that joining a Rotary club can help anyone, at any age, to become a driving force in their community and profession. So, how did he do it? Read on to find out.

Wilf Wilkinson was new to the town of Trenton, Ontario, Canada, when he was asked to join the local Rotary club in 1962. At his first club meeting, Wilf realized how lucky he was to have been drawn into a group whose ideals so exactly matched his own.

One of Wilf’s four sons, Peter, says, “Dad’s philosophy is ‘to whom much is given, much is expected.’”

If your actions inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more, and become more, then you are a leader. - Dalton McGuinty

“I knew that Wilf was a tremendous leader long before I knew about his ascension within Rotary, or his professional success, or his many contributions to the community,” says Ontario’s premier, Dalton McGuinty. “Someone once said that if your actions inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more, and become more, then you are a leader.”

Wilf’s desire to serve has been the key to his becoming a leader in Rotary. In 1971, he became governor of District 707 (now 7070, covering parts of Ontario), and his rise in the leadership of Rotary International had begun. But he was more interested in changing lives, and he would soon get a chance he had never imagined to do just that.

A turning point

Wilf vividly remembers a visit to southern India in 1982 to help local Rotary clubs promote a measles immunization program. At the time, the disease was killing millions of children on the subcontinent. At a club meeting, he watched as a doctor cradled a crying baby in his arms and administered the vaccine.

“It was a life-changing experience,” Wilf remembers. “I saw the tremendous needs, and the dedication of Rotarians there to solve those needs.”

Before the measles project was over, he had been tapped to apply his skills to another issue. In 1986, Gerry Wooll, then chair of the Canada PolioPlus Committee and past RI treasurer, named him vice chair and treasurer of the PolioPlus program in Canada. The task was daunting: to raise C$10 million from Rotarians across Canada. Less than three years later, they had raised $12 million, and based on that success, he was asked to head up the Canadian advocacy effort that has secured more than US$180 million for PolioPlus from the Canadian government.

Centennial convention chair

To celebrate Rotary’s centennial, nearly 40,000 people came from 200 regions of the world, one of the largest turnouts for any RI Convention. Rotary Foundation Trustee Louis Piconi, who chaired the 2005 Chicago Convention Promotion Committee, credits Wilf, chair of that year’s convention committee, with much of that success:

“His sincere appreciation for every level of effort is a characteristic not seen as often as it should. He has the [ability to] endear people all around the world.”

But Wilf’s service extends beyond Rotary. In 2001, in honor of his active commitment to his church, he was awarded the Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice medal by Pope John Paul II. Right up to the time he became president-elect of RI, he was executive director of the Quinte Ballet School of Canada, one of the country’s leading dance schools.

A member a year

Though his leadership responsibilities keep him away for long stretches, Wilf manages to remain very involved in his home club, where he continues to serve on the membership committee. Perhaps that explains one of his principal goals for Rotarians this year.

I want Rotarians everywhere to accept the responsibility of bringing in one new member each year and mentoring that person to become a committed Rotarian. - Wilf Wilkinson

“I want Rotarians everywhere to accept the responsibility of bringing in one new member each year and mentoring that person to become a committed Rotarian,” he says.

Wilf deeply believes in the power of one person, one Rotarian, to make a difference.

In fact, the effect Wilf has on leaders and ordinary Rotarians alike makes it hard to be skeptical when he reveals his most daring dream for Rotary: “World peace is possible, and Rotary can help achieve it.”

Impossible? Maybe. But when Wilf Wilkinson says he can make something happen, only a fool bets against him.
